PEEK AT THE WEEK

Colleen DiSanto

Jesus, You walked and died on the way of the cross because You loved us more than life itself. Your body was beaten, bruised, and broken for us. You were laid in the tomb, but even death could not end Your life. Your death and Your resurrection give us hope, and belief that we too can deal with anything that life hands us, as long as we share the cross together. We do not stand alone. We know that Your risen Spirit lives within us and in those around us.

Classroom Spotlight

Students at St. Thomas & St. Timothy School each participated in their own Living Stations of the Cross on this Holy Thursday, in preparation for the Easter weekend ahead.

The students reenacted the journey of Jesus Christ, from His condemnation to the crucifixion and ultimately, His resurrection. Each student took on their roles with dedication and reverence, bringing the story to life. As they walked the path of Jesus' suffering and sacrifice, the message of love, forgiveness, and redemption resonated throughout the church. The Living Stations of the Cross served as a powerful reminder of the sacrifices made for humanity and the hope that springs from acts of love. We wish all of our St. Thomas & St. Timothy families a Blessed Easter weekend.
